GROVETON,

TEXAS

FOREWORD

To You

Future 'Tomahawks, young or old.
We, the Annual Staff of 1945-1946, leave
'This' the legend of our classes and school.
So that you may at a glance see all the things we've loved and left behind.

To you new knowledge will unfold,
new heights will be obtained but loyalty to 'Groveton High' will always be the same.

We leave you now for words cannot express our hopes and dreams for future
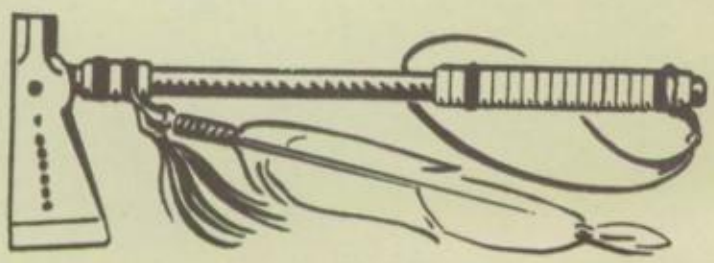
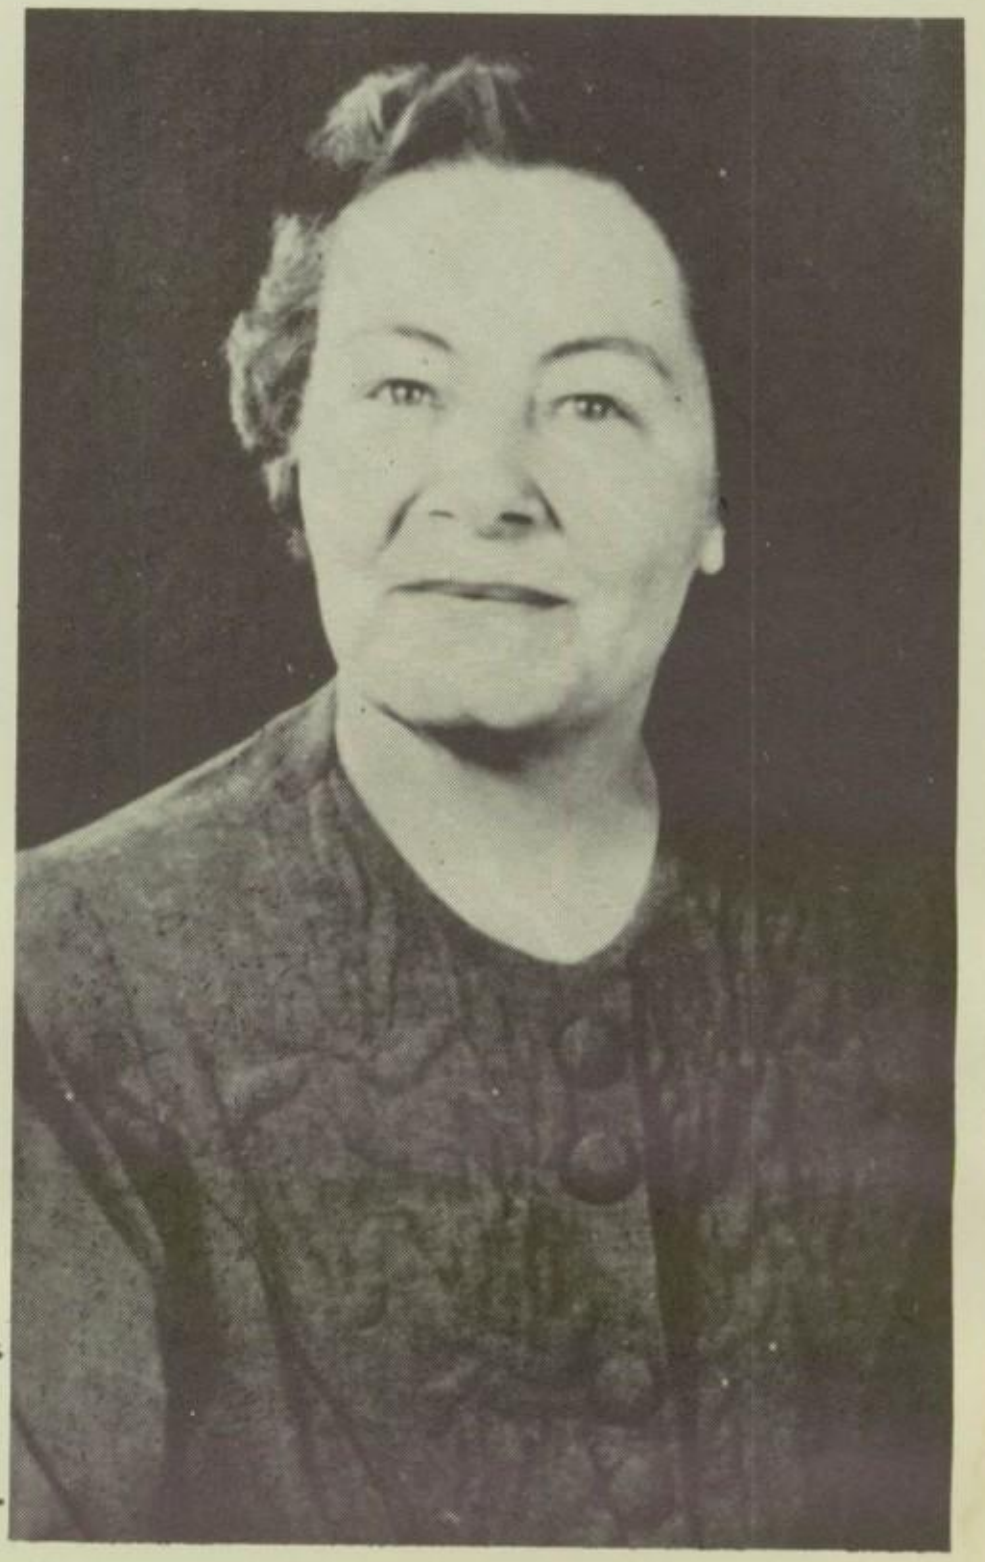
Tomahawk happiness.

The Annual Staff





DEDICATION

We dedicate this annual to one whose boundless energy, untiring efforts and sincere interest in the behalf of the students of our school has shown her a true friend--

SENIOR CLASS WILL

The Senior Class, having unsound minds, does hereby leave this last will and testament, by the undersigned, to the members included.

Bob Richardson leaves his mechanical ability to 'Jelly' Hester, who is a whiz himself. Bobby Browning leaves her voice to anyone who can catch it. Martha Gantt leaves her smile to Joyce Stevenson. To all the underclassmen who like headaches, E. C. Deaton, leaves his ability to keep books.

Vonita Gates leaves her quiet personality to Rowena Scott. Blanche Friday leaves her vim, vigor, and vitality to Mary Emily Due and Mattie Lou Mangum to be divided because of excess. Jerry Collins wills his last minute dashes to English to all lazy juniors. Gerald Creacy leaves his way with the girls to Billy Lee, who is-----Well!

Floyd and Lloyd leave together. Hoover Gates leaves---much to the sorrow of all the high school girls. L. D. Lowery leaves his watch and heart to Frances Barton------. Betty Friday wills her corny jokes to Era Bell Thompson, who has plenty of her own. Norma Lister leaves her blond hair to Betty Carroll.

Carroll Mills wills his popularity to Harold DeWalt, who is not a wall flower. Lillie Mae Thompson leaves her typewriter to anyone who can control it. Edwina Dudley leaves her perfect conduct as an example for the lowly freshmen. To all those unsuspecting Sophomores, Janie Marsh, leaves her good will. To Maydelle Collins, Imogene Lewellen leaves her charming giggle.

Lucille Wright leaves, period. Eunafa Miller leaves her lease on locker 19 to anyone brave enough to open the door. Dan Dominey leaves his shoulders to Gerald Smith. Enda Joe Dickey leaves her clarinet to the Groveton Band. Mary Ann Reese wills her good grades in Geometry to those who will have the nerve to try it next year. Lloyd Dunaway leaves his curly locks to the football team. Zid Hollis leaves her tracks she has trodden over the campus and also her fat to Miss Hinson.

Roy Campbell leaves his bashfulness to that cute Ralph Gay. Horace Fletcher leaves the library to Mrs. Rushing---since she is boss. Calvin Stewart leaves his new dictionary to the library of G. H. S.
